

Financial study

I. General Description

This course includes the following parts: Part 1: purchasing power parity theory; Part 2: banking theory; Part 3: portfolio theory.

II. Teaching Objectives

The purpose of this course is to provide the student to understand the fundamental theory of finance field, including the purchasing power parity theory, banking theory and portfolio theory. We also hope that the students can learn how to blend theory with practice applying the theoretical aspects of financial economics by taking homework and presentation.

III. Teaching Methods

Teaching method includes lecture and discussion.

IV. Teaching Materials

Course materials will be composed of PowerPoint files, black board lectures, and additional materials.